

Canada Water

City inequality

The place today: green and blue

Canada Water Library

Old Rotherhithe

Watersports centre

Brunel Museum

Southwark Park

Albion Channel

Greenland Dock Marina

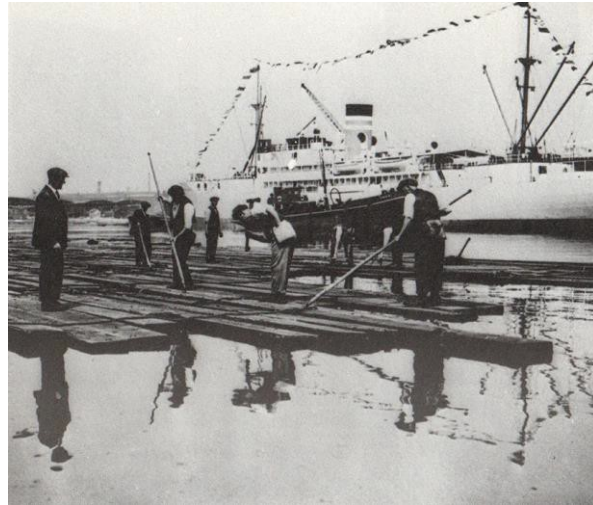

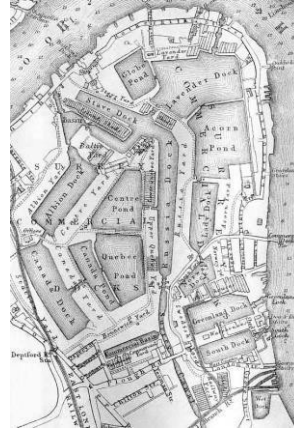

Surrey Water cycle path

Rich history and context

From market gardens to shipyards in Elizabethan times, and to working docks for most of the 20th century, the Rotherhithe peninsula has a rich history.

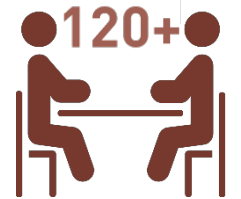

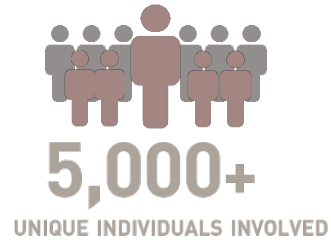

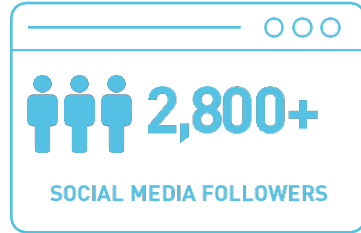

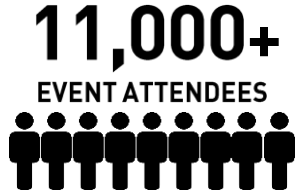

Canada Dock was once the centre of London's timber trade, where thousands of tons from Scandinavia, the Baltic and North America were unloaded every day.

Ada Salter 1866-1942

Four years of local engagement around the masterplan

PUBLIC CONSULTATION
AND LOCAL EVENTS

REGULARLY UPDATED

EACH NEWSLETTER DELIVERED TO 26k
RESIDENTS AND BUSINESSES

Creating a legacy

A fairer and more equal city – ensuring that the physical changes will go hand in hand with social, health and economic benefits, now and in the future.

A place to learn and grow

A place to belong

A place to be happy and healthy

A place to work

The masterplan: 16 new streets, 6 new public spaces

53 acres

2m sq ft workspace

1m sq ft retail & leisure

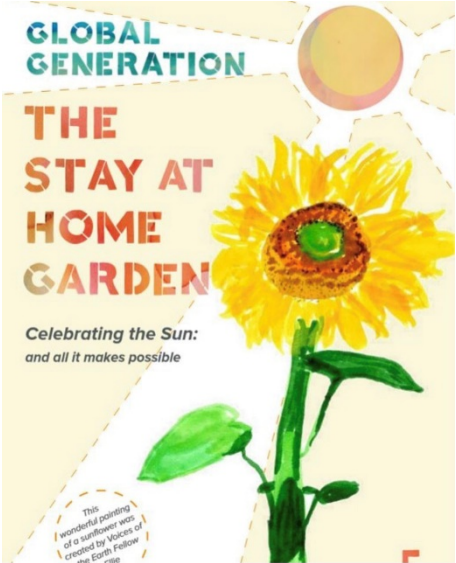

3,000 homes

3 major public spaces

Surrounded by green and blue

Community programmes working in partnership with Time & Talents and Global Generation

Community business hub open on site supporting local start-ups

REFURBISHED AND COVID SECURE

Thrive Low Cost Work and Makerspace

BRIGHT, AFFORDABLE
OFFICES, MEETING
ROOMS, MAKERSPACE AND
FREE BUSINESS SUPPORT, WITH PRIORITY FOR SE16
ENTREPRENEURS

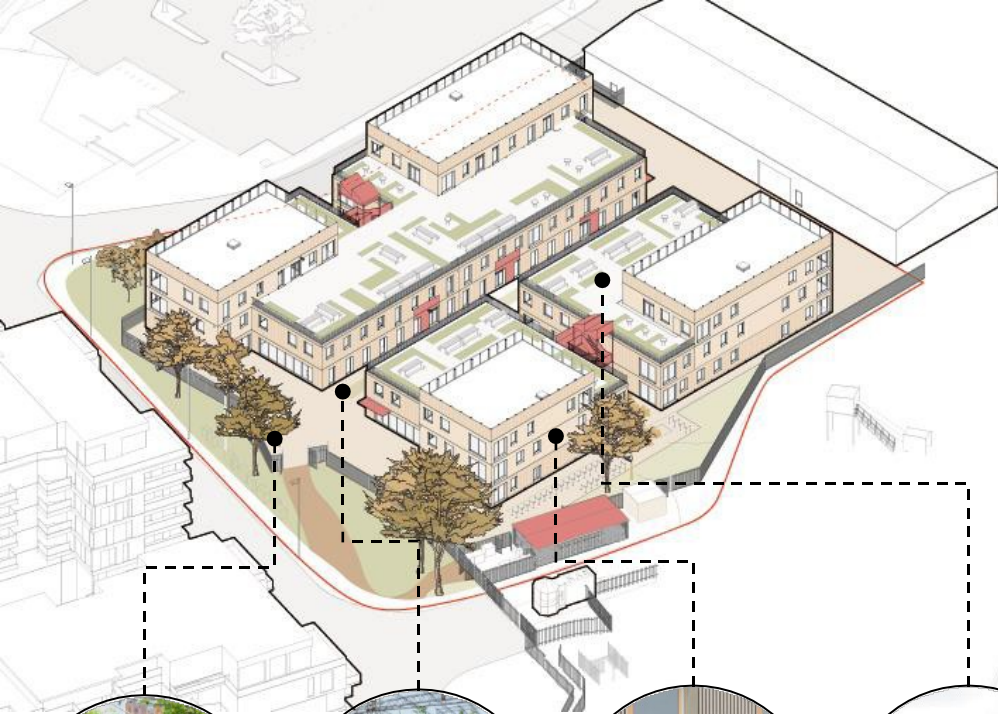

@treeshepherd.org.uk www.treeshepherd.org.uk
020 3948 3020

Tedi-London

A new engineering university

Founded by King's College London, Arizona State University and University of New South Wales

Community Growing

Green Central Street

*Timber façade
references local history*

Rooftop terraces and gardens

